FISCAL NOTE

HB 2733 - SB 2985

March 30, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Bill permits, but does not require, an employer the choice of paying an injured employee their full wages instead of the current workers compensation rate of 66 2/3 of wages. Bill gives the employer credit against any workers' compensation award or settlement for payments made under a disability insurance plan.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Expenditures - Not Significant/Claims Award Fund

Decrease Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

Estimate assumes any impact on state or local government expenditures would be not significant.
